Very Special Arts-Brevard and the Law Firm of Moletteire Injury Law Announce 2013 Holiday Card Contest Winners

Rockledge, Fla. – Very Special Arts-Brevard (VSA-Brevard), a program of Brevard Achievement Center (BAC), in partnership with the law firm of Moletteire Injury Law, congratulate Jade T. of Westside Elementary in Palm Bay for winning the firm’s 2013 holiday card contest. Jade is a student in Ms. Stacey MacDonald’s Exceptional Student Education (ESE) class at Westside.

As the winner of the contest, Jade’s drawing titled “Joyous Snowflake” was featured as the face of the firm’s 2013 holiday card and she received a gift certificate to a local retailer. The law firm also awarded gift certificates to second place winner, Zackary A. of Enterprise Elementary in Cocoa, a student in Ms. Jessica David-King’s class, as well as third place winner, Gianna I. of Westside Elementary, also a student of Ms. MacDonald’s. Robert Moletteire, managing partner of the law firm, selected the winners.

“While our students with disabilities demonstrate in the classroom that their talent is unmistakable,” said VSA-Brevard Executive Director, Lori Emly, “the holiday card contest gives them a unique opportunity to showcase their creativity throughout the community.”

The annual holiday card contest has been sponsored by the law firm of Moletteire Injury Law for 16 consecutive years.
